St Joseph Prayer

Memorare, Explained

The Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary's intercession in an hour of dire need. "I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother," reads one section of the prayer, which goes on to beseech "the Mother of the Word Incarnate" to receive these petitions with love and mercy.

St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis de Sales were two great devotees of this prayer.

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the text is derived from an older and longer prayer entitled "Ad sanctitatis tuae pedes, dulcissima Virgo Maria" ("at your holy feet, most sweet Virgin Mary"). The title "Memorare" is taken from the Latin word for "remember," which begins the prayer. The modern version appears in the 1846 Raccolta, a collection of indulgenced prayers.

God bless you and thank you for your generosity!

From Father Pieter

Greetings! Today, Jesus is moved with pity when sees the crowd like "sheep without a shepherd," so He calls the twelve apostles and gives them authority to preach and heal in His name. Why does this matter? Jesus is re-establishing the twelve tribes of Israel in his apostles! The apostles, and their successors, the bishops, will minister with the very same authority of Jesus! This means our faith is not our own: through our bishop, the Good Shepherd himself guides us, and through the sacramental life of the Jesus, the Good Shepherd himself feeds us and heals us. Come and receive the love of the Good Shepherd through the Mass!

What's Happening at St. Joseph:

Gratitude: Anna Nowaczewski—this summer Anna is officially "retiring" as Director of Religious Education and Director of Saint Joseph Classical homeschool program—thankfully, Anna will continue serving as a volunteer for religious education and SJC as well OCIA! Anna's faith and love for our Lord and her brothers and sisters have blessed us abundantly at Saint Joseph. Please join me in praying for Anna and Steve Nowaczewski, and for their children and grandchildren, and pray that God may bless Anna and Steve through their generous service in the Church.

Welcome to Katie VandeVoorde, our new Director of Religious Education, and Laura Foutch, the new Director of Saint Joseph Classical.

Thank you to our Senior Altar Servers

The parish is grateful to these three young men who have faithfully served at the altar for many years! We will miss their leadership and example of reverent faith. We pray for their success as they graduate from High School.
